Case No. 22STCV36750

NOTICE OF RULING AND NOTICE
THAT THE TEMPORARY
RESTRAINING ORDER HAS BEEN DISSOLVED

Action Filed: November 21, 2022

28 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on November 28, 2022, a remote hearing in this matter went forward in Department 86 of the Stanley Mosk courthouse, located at 111 North Hill Street, in downtown Los Angeles, California, before the Honorable Judge Michael Beckloff. Attorney Bradley I. Kramer of The Trial Law Offices of Bradley I. Kramer, M.D., Esq. appeared remotely on behalf of Jeanne M. Carey. Attorney Marijana Kral of Fraser Watson & Croutch, LLP specially

1 appeared remotely on behalf of The Regents of the University of California.

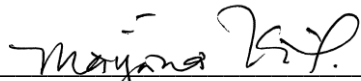

2 The Court confirmed receipt of documents submitted on behalf of The Regents of the
3 University of California, and confirmed that plaintiff did not submit any documents. After hearing
4 from counsel and after being advised that Jeanne M. Carey had been transferred out of UCLA
5 against medical advice ["AMA"] by ambulance arranged by her son shortly before the hearing, the 6 Court ruled as follows:

7 1. The Court dissolved its prior temporary restraining order, issued on November 23,
8 2022 via ex parte hearing, which temporarily prevented UCLA/The Regents of the University of 9 California from moving Jeanne M. Carey to comfort care only. That prior November 23, 2022 Court
10 order has been eliminated.

11 2. The Court instructed counsel specially appearing on behalf of The Regents of the 12 University of California to give notice of ruling.
