- I reserve the right to change my answer after the MPRE!
- Yes, I felt ready to take March MPRE by the time I completed most of the modules for this class.
- They did, but I still feel grossly underprepared for the MPRE. I think really though that independent study and additional quiz taking will be helpful. I don't think that this is Prof. Pope's fault. It's just much more complicated material and questioning than I initially thought.
- I had to learn everything through outside resources, like Barbri. If this class wasn't required, I would have just taken the Barbri class to prepare for the MPRE. This class wasn't helpful to my studying.
