Response Rate 4/17 (23.53%)

- I gained a deeper understanding of medical malpractice and the intricacies of the claims that can be pursued.
- It was one of, if not the most, interesting courses I have taken in law school.
- 1). I have a better understanding of relevant health law statutes. 2). I have a better understanding of how to apply relevant health law statutes.
- A deeper understanding of medical malpractice, recognizing it as an umbrella term that encompasses a range of related issues.

4 - What are the one to three most effective things your primary professor(s) did to advance your learning in the course?

Response Rate 4/17 (23.53%)

- Going over the quizzes and other assignment materials helped clearly explain why answers were correct or not.
- The professor did an excellent job and covering the salient points.
- 1). The professor was very open to answering questions outside of class. 2). He was good at presenting information for visual and auditory learners.
- Professor Pope reviewed every quiz in the following class, which was incredibly helpful. He encouraged us to ask questions and facilitated discussions about why certain answers were correct, which really deepened my understanding of the material. Additionally, he provided thoughtful and constructive feedback outside of class whenever I had questions.

5 - What are one to three specific things about the course that could be improved?

Response Rate 4/17 (23.53%)

- Quiz questions should have a second person look over them because there were some issues with confusing wording.
- I would suggest using short answer questions instead of multiple choice questions for the quizzes.
- 1). Sometimes, the professor would accidentally say things that seemed to contradict what was in the class slides.
- Fewer multiple-choice quizzes would have been nice. Adding a discussion board post every now and then could be a great way to show that we've read and understood the course material for the week. I get that it's more time-consuming to grade, but even just two or three would've made a difference. I'm not the strongest multiple-choice test taker, and I felt like the quizzes didn't fully reflect my understanding, even though I kept up with the readings.
